

OAKWOOD MANOR PARENT/SCHOOL COMPACT FOR LEARNING

At school, students, parents and teachers believe in working together and sharing responsibility for giving students the best possible education and a good start in life.

As a family, our responsibilities for the education of our children include:

- Providing physical and emotional encouragement by setting limits, giving love and listening
- Being consistent with expectations and holding children accountable for behavior and academic achievement
- Teaching values and respect for others by setting good examples
- Being enthusiastic about learning and school
- Reading to/or listening to my child read daily
- Supporting and participating in school programs and activities
- Ensuring that my child has at least 95% attendance at school, arrives on time, ready to learn
- Providing a quiet time and place for homework, and monitoring TV viewing

As students, our responsibilities for our education include:

- Showing integrity, personal best, safety and respect
- Respecting myself, my classmates, my parents, and all members of Oakwood Manor Elementary School
- Coming to school every day on time, ready to learn, doing my personal best, and working hard
- Being responsible for items that need to go home and need to be returned to school
- Reading every day
- Communicating with my parent(s) and teachers so they can help me be successful in school
- Practicing our school's life skills
- Taking care of school property including returning library books

As a school, our responsibilities for the education of our children include:

- Fostering creativity and critical thinking
- Holding children accountable for behavior and academic achievement
- Keeping parents informed
- Instilling and modeling responsible and respectful behavior
- Meeting students' individual needs
- Providing developmentally appropriate instruction for all students
- Providing a safe, respectful and positive learning environment
- Making learning enjoyable and challenging for each individual student
- Embracing diversity, respect, responsibility and life skills
