

David Flynn

Class of 1985

Northtown Hall of Fame

Induction 2019

At 18, David joined the U.S. Army Reserves and has served as a military police officer, intelligence analyst, and a nuclear biological and chemical warfare specialist. He attained the rank of Sergeant Major and currently oversees operations for the 209th Regional Support Group in Kansas City. During his military career, David went on missions to Honduras and Iraq and received a combined 14 Army Achievement and Commendations Medals and two Meritorious Service Medals.

David attended Northwest Missouri State and graduated magna cum laude in 1993 with a Social Science Secondary Education degree. He was a student teacher at Winnetonka High School and has been on the faculty ever since, now as Department Chair and a member of the district's curriculum design team. David also earned a Master's Degree in Curriculum and Instruction from Park University. He serves as head coach of both the boys and girls soccer teams and volunteers for youth soccer, Harvesters and the Midwest Transplant Network.
