

James “Jay” Brewer

Class of 1938

Northtown Hall of Fame

Induction 2004

After serving as a Staff Sergeant in the Army, Jay Brewer returned to Northtown, where he worked as a meat cutter for 34 years. He eventually opened the Little Store, which has been a Hornet gathering place for decades.

Jay has always been an integral part of the Northtown community. He was City Collector for many years, a committee chair for the city's 75th anniversary celebration in 1987, a charter member of the North Kansas City Historical Society and secretary of the Kiwanis Club. He has served on the Board of Directors for the Christmas Store, as a District Deputy Grand Lecturer for the Alpha Masonic Lodge and in several different capacities for the First Methodist Church of North Kansas City.