

Dr. R. Lynn Bondurant

Class of 1957

Northtown Hall of Fame

Induction 2004

Dr. R. Lynn Bondurant worked for the United States government for 23 years before retiring as Educational Programs Officer for NASA in Ohio. He later served as director of Education and Public Outreach for Alphaport, Inc. and was involved with Project Prometheus, a NASA project for a mission to Jupiter. In addition, he has been a principal, a curriculum coordinator and a planetarium director, and written numerous articles and books about science education.

A recipient of NASA's Exceptional Service and Leadership Medal, the Challenger Seven Award and the Inter-racial Cooperation and Education Award, Dr. Bondurant also received the Lifetime Educator Award from Park University.