

Richard Carrothers

Class of 1964

Northtown Hall of Fame

Induction 2003

Throughout his career, Richard has received many accolades for his fine arts career. He served as assistant director of theater at the Jewish Community Center. Later, he brought dinner theater to Kansas City by opening Tiffany's Attic and Waldo-Astoria, named by the Wall Street Journal as "two of the most successful theaters ... in the country." Currently, Richard is a founding partner of the New Theater Restaurant.

Richard has produced for television and 20th Century Fox. He serves on the Overland Park Convention & Visitors' Bureau and the city's Chamber of Commerce.
