

Sandra Doolin Mellinger

Class of 1961

Northtown Hall of Fame

Induction 2003

A registered nurse, Sandra Doolin Mellinger founded Medical Care Management Group, Inc. and the Missouri Association for Supplemental Health Care. She is a member of the Missouri Alliance for Home Care and currently serves as director of Coming of Age: Kansas City, a metro-wide initiative that promotes civic involvement, lifelong learning and community leadership in the 50+ population.

In the community, Sandra has been a Kansas City Parks and Recreation commissioner, a board member for Safe Haven, and is a co-founder of the Harvest Ball Society. In addition, she volunteers for the Leukemia Society and was honored with the Anne Robb Townsend Award in Business in 1999. She and her sister Linda Doolin Ward received the Clay County Economic Development Council's Look North Award in 2008.
