

Joe Jacobs, a member of the Class of 1975, has been a district student at Winnetonka as well as a teacher there. He now serves as a member of the North Kansas City District Board of Education. Jacobs earned his MBA in Labor relations from the University of Missouri-Kansas City in 1981. Currently, he is the director of strategic planning and administration services for Kansas City Power and Light Company. Jacobs is active in the community, serving on several education and technology boards including Junior Achievement, University of Missouri-Kansas City, Rockhurst University, KU Regents Center, and the Johnson County Community College. Jacobs was named one of the year 2000 Up and Comers in Kansas City by the Business Journal.