

Sean O'Brien graduated with a Juris Doctorate in 1980 from the University of Missouri. O'Brien, a member of the Class of 1974, holds Law Bar memberships in Missouri, the U.S. District Court, Western District of Missouri, Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals, Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the U.S. Supreme Court. He has held numerous professional positions and committee memberships in the area of public defense. Among the awards to his credit, O'Brien received the 2002 Outstanding Alumni Award from the University of Missouri-Kansas City, the National Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty - Legal Service Award in 1998, the Missouri Association for Social Welfare - Annual Recognition Award in 1994, and the National Lawyers Guild Social and Economic Justice Award in 1993. O'Brien has also published numerous articles on topics that include Racism and Psychological Defense.